New Outfielder to Be in Game Against

A new outfielder Vincent Tydeman s expected to reach South Bend in time to get in the game Saturday with the Springfield club. He was signed Friday by Owner Smith and is now on his way here. Tydeman is known to local fans 466 as he played 1912, 1913 and part of 431 1914 with the Grand Rapids club He has always batted around the right handed and is fast on his feet 524 His coming should strengthen the Tydeman played a part of the 1914 season with Topeka in the Wesono tern league and batted 306. Last 578 season he went good and finished day night with a batting average of .308. This year the Topeka club got started badly and the management starter were retained. The manager was let go and Tydeman, who has been hitting the ball hard was dropped as the policy called for a clean sweep.
